Re: United States vs. Juan C. Tenorio and Charlene F Tenorio
CR 07-0078, District Court of Guam

Dear Judge Tydingco-Gatewood:

I have known Charlene Tenorio and through her, Juan Tenorio since 1977. Since I have known Charlene, she has shown to be a compassionate person. We first met because of our great interest in horses, Charlene owning a horse ranch and I just liking horses. Later in years, I learned how to shoe horses and developed this service into a licensed side business. I was engaged to shoe Charlene's horses in Yigo. I was always paid on time for this service.

Juan Tenorio also helped me many years ago in advising me about safe types of housing. He set aside his busy schedule at his office and answered many questions with sound advice. He did this free of charge.

I am hoping this letter aids in seeing Mr and Mrs Tenorio as I do.

Sincerely
Sibyl Crisostomo, MS, CCC-sp/lic
